The Gate

Letter From the Editor

"Alma Mater" is Latin for "nourishing mother." Through living and breathing Wingate University for the past four years, I have begun to see the meaning of those two words. Every time I return to Wingate's campus after an extended absence, I feel this rush of excitement, almost a giddy feeling of returning to some extremely comfortable place. School pride is almost as important as the learning that takes place on campus. The feeling of exultation when we won a very difficult game, the laughter at the Greek variety show, or the disagreement on how to pronounce Wingate are all a part of this experience. No matter how long you've been at Wingate, it leaves a huge impression. My wish for you is for you to enjoy your time here, because when your time is over, she'll always be right off of Highway 74 waiting for you to come home.

Chris Garlow Jr.

ALMA MATER

In the land of Carolina
Neath the sky so blue
Stands our noble Alma Mater
Glorious to view.
Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Loud the praise relate,
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail, all Hail, Wingate.

Far and wide her sons and daughters
Bear the gold and blue,
Proudly rally round her banner,
Hail! Wingate to you.

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Loud the praise relate,
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail,all Hail, Wingate.
